

What belongs where? The right way to separate waste!

Organic waste

Belongs in the organic waste bin
✓	Fruit and vegetable waste
✓	Coffee grounds, filters, tea, tea bags
✓	Food waste (including cooked food waste)
✓	Old food (not including the packaging)
✓	Eggshells
✓	Flowers
✓	Garden waste
✓	Foliage
✓	Wrapping paper, e.g. newspapers and kitchen roll

Residual waste

Belongs in the residual waste bin
✓	Cigarette butts
✓	Ash, dust
✓	Ceramics, porcelain
✓	Dishes and pots
✓	Cleaning rags and sponges
✓	Small animal litter, cat litter
✓	Vacuum cleaner bags
✓	Disposable nappies
✓	Sanitary products

Waste paper

Belongs in the waste paper bin
✓	Newspapers and magazines
✓	Catalogues
✓	Cardboard and cartons
✓	Brochures
✓	Booklets and books
✓	Packing paper
✓	Pizza boxes (clean and uncoated)
✓	Cardboard egg boxes
✓	Telephone books

Yellow sack

Belongs in the yellow sack
✓	Yoghurt pots and margarine tubs
✓	Polystyrene packaging
✓	Plastic tubes
✓	Single-use plastic bottles
✓	Plastic bags
✓	Jam jars
✓	Milk and juice cartons
✓	Vacuum packaging

Waste glass

Belongs in the glass container
✓	White glass
✓	Coloured glass
✓	Single-use glass bottles
✓	Other hollow glassware

Please do not place in the organic waste bin
✗	Small animal litter, cat litter, dog excrement
✗	Plastics
✗	Soil, sods, sand, gravel, stones, wood

Please do not place in the residual waste bin
✗	Harmful substances
✗	Batteries, electronic devices
✗	Construction waste

Please do not place in the waste paper bin
✗	Wood
✗	Dirty or coated paper
✗	Photos, plastic bags

Please do not place in the yellow sack
✗	Plastic bowls
✗	Coat hangers
✗	Plastic pipes

Please do not place in the glass container
✗	Window panes
✗	Porcelain, ceramics, stoneware
✗	Light bulbs

Use our recycling centres.
Do you have any other questions about separating waste?
We would be happy to help!